To Patsy Donovan, former manager of the St. Losis Cardinals, and now leader of the Washington team of the American League, has been offered the manage ment of the Providence club of the Eastern League, at a salary of $5,000 a year. Donovan now has the matter under consideration, and if he can secure his release from the Washington club the chances are he will accept Powers's offer. President Powers of the Eastern League, who is a stockholder in the Providence

Club, is determined to secure a capable manager for the Rhode Island team. As soon as he learned there was a pos sible chance to secure Donovan he opened up negotiations with Patsy, and the pair are now dickering. Donovan is now stop-ping at the West End Hotel. Donovan has expressed his dissatisfaction at conditions in Weshington more than once this season. Everything in the Senate camp is not satisfactory, and Patsy feels the restraint placed upon him.

Donovan has also often expressed his desire to become a magnate in a minor league. If he secured the managership of the Providence club and made good he would very likely be in a position to attain his ambition to become a minor league magnate.

As manager of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1800 Donovan received one of the largest salaries ever paid to a baseball player. For that one season he got $9.500. Strife in the ranks of the Cardinals caused Donovan to resign his position as manager at the close of the season of 1903.

Robert M. Fulton of Cincinnati Transferred to St. Louis as Chief Post-Office Inspector.

A telegram from Washington last night announced the appointment of Post-Office Inspector Robert M. Fulton, now inspecto in charge at Cincinnati. O., to succeed Inspector George A. Dice, who died last Friday afternoon. The announcement was made by Fourth Assistants Postmaster General Bristow, under whose office the inspection service is regulated. Colonel W. T. Sullivan, acting inspecto in charge during the illness of Inspector Dice, is slated to act in that capacity until the arrival of Mr. Fulton in this city. Inspector Sullivan's familiarity with the duties of the inspector in charge makes him eminently capable of assuming temporary charge of the office. During the long illness of Inspector Dice, Colonel Sul-

Chief Post-Office Inspector Vickery stated that there was no real need of the immediate presence of Mr. Fulton in St. Louis, as Inspector Dice's department is in good condition. He said that Inspector Fulton would proceed to St. Louis as soon as arrangements are made for leaving Cincinnati.

Mr. Fulton is a comparatively young man, being about 35 years old. He is not a stranger to this city, as he was transferred to his present post from the St. Louis office. He has been in the postal service for a number of years.

SMITH DEFEATS WASHINGTON A. C.

Red and White Team Runs Up Score of 36 to 0 Against Opponents.

Smith Academy players defeated the Washington Athletic Club football team at League Park yesterday afternoon and displayed that they are further advancing in the game, and will give High School a good contest on Thanksgiving Day. The score was 26 to 0, five of the touchdowns being scored in the first half, which was of only fifteen minutes' duration. The game was a good one, considering the fact that the Washington boys have had little practice. They were about the same weight as the red and white team, but the latter had the more speed and won on their merits. Smith Academy have improved mor

Smith Academy have improved more than 10 per cent in their playing during the last week, and are just getting into the proper form. Coach Everhardt expressed satisfaction with the work of the team and thought they would be better by Thanksgiving Day.

Allen, Wind and Campbell, who played in the back field in the first half of the game, worked faster than they have in any contest played this season, and reldom fumbled the ball. They sedom falled to make their distance and allowed the ball to go in Washington's hands on few occasions.

ball to go in Washington's hands on few occasions.

During the second half Coach Everhardt sent in many different players, and throughout the game he had used his entire squad. The Washington players, however, withstood the bucking well and were not compelled to make any changes. After the kick-off the Smith players advanced the ball down toward the Washingtons' goal, and in less than four minutes had crossed the opponents' line. Allein carrying the skin over the mark. Fullerton kicked the goal and the other five that were made. This was one of the features of the game and shows that Smith is not lacking in the booting line. The teams lined up again, and by clever interference and straight and cross bucks the red and white players soon had the ball on the opponents' five-vard line, and Baker was sent over. Fullerton kicked the goal.

The second half was called.

The second half was called for the only score for Smith in this half.

The Washington team has a good bunch of players, and with more practice and team work they should be able to put a good team in the field. While some of the linemen were rather slow in forming interference for the backs, the latter showed rather well and made their distance on several occasions.

As Corbett protested his right to throw the smaller bails directly at the pins, without regarding the alley, McLean had to work as best he could, and made the average mentioned. There was quite a gifthering of baseball followers at Bader's alleys to witness the match.

Newton Perry served as referee, and brought two escorts with him to prevent either contestant from doing him bodity barm when he handed down his verdict. Alike Donovan challenged the winner, and will bowl a special match with Corbett next week.

Sankruptcy of Thomas Waggeman and Recent Letter of Marquise des Monsteirs Discussed.

Washington, Nov. 16.-The semiannual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Catholic University of America convened at the university to-day, and considered matters of importance connected with the future of the institution.

Chief of these was the renunciation of the Catholic creed by the Marquise des Monateirs, formerly Miss Gwendolin Caldwell, whose generosity founded the university, and the bankruptcy of Thomas E. We do not mean to imply that she was in any way incapacitated to think and act for herself. She is her own mistress. Knowing nothing of what prompted her to take the course she did, we must wait until it is made clear."

The building in which the board is meeting is that built with the original contribution from Miss Caldwell. Over the door, carved in stone, is the name of the building, the date it was erected, and Miss Caldwell's name, together with the announcement that she is the founder of the university. In the main receptionroom is a magnificent painting of Miss Caldwell, done in 1889, which bears this inscription:
